Education and Degrees

- March, 1980 Department of Electrical Engineering, Faculty of Engineering, Osaka University (Bachelor)
- March, 1982 Department of Electrical Engineering, Graduate School of Engineering, Osaka University (Master)
- November, 1982 Graduate School of Engineering, Osaka University (Ph.D.)

Positions

- April, 1982 Department of System and Technology, MHI LTD.
- September, 1987 Institute for Supercomputing Research, Recruit Co., Ltd.
(Researcher)
- April, 1990 Institute for Supercomputing Research, Recruit Co., Ltd.
(Senior Researcher)
- April, 1993 Department of Computer Engineering, Faculty of Engineering, Himeji Institute of Technology (Associate Professor)
- March, 2005-present Theory and Computer Simulation Center, National Institute for Fusion Science (Professor)
- March, 2005-present Department of Physics, Nagoya University (Visiting Professor)

Honors

- November, 1986 Shipyard Award, Kobe Shipyard & Machinery Works, MHI LTD.
(Integrated Computer System for Turbine-blade Manufacture)
- December, 1986 Advance Research Award, Institute of Laser Engineering, Osaka University (Three Dimensional Simulation for Implosion Process)

September, 1992 Contribution Award, Institute of Laser Engineering, Osaka
University (Installation and Operation of LAN)

November, 2002 Gordon Bell Award for Language, Supercomputing Conference 2002
(Special Category)

May, 2016 Review Paper Award, the Laser Society of Japan

Research

Computational Plasma Physics, Laser Fusion
